The US Supreme Court's Citizen's United decision last January sanctified corporate control of Americans' political awareness. Now, another nail has been driven into the coffin of American democracy, as the FCC allows media corporations to merge, more effectively wipe out competing media (like FSRN and Democracy Now) and to more- effectively limit what Americans will know or not know. If the FCC and the Obama administration actually value democracy, they will protect, from any government or corporate entity, Americans' right to get uncensored information. "Many corporations and the individuals driving their behavior have shown many times that we need to strongly oversee their activity and regulate it, fairly. They have shown us a lack of social conscience combined with a greed driven desire for more wealth and power. They clearly want more than their fair share of our common resources. "Bad enough you do not consult Obama supporters who are listed as ENGINEERS on net neutrality that I have been screaming against since Marty Meehan was my Rep in MA. I mean it is the absolute sneakiest thing ever proposed by the likes of shady Verizon, ATT, and the rest that should have remained separate as judge Green ordered. Net neutrality being lost-what you approved was not net neutrality allows VZ and the likes to charge for GOOGLE to run searches over their pipe-JUST GREAT OBAMA. Now let suckfest companies like Comcast buy their way into buying content providers so they can block the world series etc. like they showed their responsibility the playoffs in NY. Comcast knows nothing about content, they are box makers and cable runners-they will kill MSNBC like Time Warner has ruined CNN., We will have no free speech in America, thanks a lot Obama for consulting engineers like me who designed Cisco routers for 10 years, built telecom for 25 years for not listening to my loudest opinion. This is not liberal/Reoub issue-its a total monopolistic slam on the US. Like allowing Exxon and Mobil to merge. SURE next let Staples and Office Depot merge, Let ABC and NBC merge-why not- LET FOX news buy very news outlet and radio outlet in the US. after all Money talks-first amendment gives them right to lie-the courts agreed its their right. With Comcast on NBC you can be sure Olbermann will get fired again, this time after the merger...you can be sure you will get No Walter Cronkite again EVER! You can be sure that soon Fox will want to buy Comcast NBC-and why not-after all one company should run everything -its efficient..LET WALMART BUY COSTCO-why not? Are you guys trying to even look like you are not sell outs?"

"Who is running the FCC...it's time to oust themsiding with corporate profits over consumers is risky since there are more of us consumers and we are getting fed up with the constant abuse of corporate lobbyist buying off the FCC (and everyone else)! We are the people, we make and can change the bottom line that these corporations depend on. We are getting better organized and have begun to flex that strength by joining consumer lobby groups, boycotting services & products along with spreading the truth to others. Food monopolies, health insurance monopolies, airline monopolies, energy monopolies...we need a president like Teddy Roosevelt who will stand up to corporate bullies and congressmen that are brave and honest and not just looking after their own pocketbooks! To all who haven't done so already, join a consumer/voter group, do your research homework and start fighting back now!"	John Simon 5827 Garden Pk Dr Sylvania, OH 43560	Marilyn Griffin PO.
